a quorum, when the House connominated Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, for Speaker, and Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, presented the name of Champ Clark, of Missouri. The roll was then called.

Mr. Ellerbee, Democrat, of South Carolina, voted in a loud voice for Cannon, voted in a loud vote for Cannon, but he immediately made correction and voted for Clark. His mistake created such a storm of laughter that he beat a hasty retreat to the cloakroom.

Republican Draw First Blood.

Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, offered the usual resolution providing that the rules of the previous Congress. "And on that motion I move the previous question," said Mr. Dalzell quickly. Mr. Clark, of Missouri, was on his feet demanding the ayes and noes before Mr. Dalzell had regained his seat, while Mr. Fitzwerald. of New York, asked to have the rules explained.

The Speaker bromptly held the latter out of order and refused to recognize Mr. Fitzgerald further. The Democrats, led by Mr. Clark, forced a roll call on Mr. Dalzell's motion.

'Uncle Joe" Will Select His Own Committees-Democrats Object.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15 .-Only five committees of the House will be named by Speaker Cannon for the Means, Rules, Printing, Mileage and Accounts.

In making up the committees it is stated on reliable authority the Speak-cr will consult with "every member of the House who desires to discuss assignments with him." This means that Minority Leader Clark will not enjoy the privilege accorded his predecessor, John Sharp Williams, of selecting the minority members. It was stated today that Mr. Cannon, after a trial of six years, had reached the conclusion that they plan was not the best, and that herfeforth he will not shift any of the rasponsibility for committee assignments to the minority leader.

Democrats Object.

The attitude taken by the Democrats at a caucus held this evening after the House adjourned is in sharp conflict with the new policy of Speaker Cannon. A resolution was adopted to prevent members of minority accepting committee assignments without the approval of Minority Leader Clark.

Loses Small Boy.

A white woman, refusing to give her name, rushed frantically into the police station last night and inquired whether anybody had seen her son. There were two men locked up on the charge of being drunk, and an officer told her that maybe one of them belonged to her. She took a look, but came back disappointed. Her son was only nine years old, she said, and had left home about an hour before. After telling her troubles at length, she left with the remark that she would walk the streets all night unless she found him, and that she knew he had gone to some moving picture show.

> [Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
> LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., March 15,udge Francis E. Buford died at his residencee, Sherwood, Brunswick county, this afternoon at 3 o'clock after a long illness. He was a native of the county, being born here in 1836. After obtaining his classical education at William and Mary and Richmond College, he studied and graduated in law at the University of Virginia, and afterwards began the practice of his profession associated with the late J. E. Shell, of Lawrenceville. While quite young he was elected Companyare this Shell, of Lawrenceville. While quite young he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of this county, and with a brief intermission held this position for sixteen years. During the civil war Judge Buford, as captain of a Brunswick Company. wick company, was assigned to duty near Richmond, but after a brief ser-vice he was relieved owing to Hyses, and detailed as enrolling officer at Lawrenceville. After the war he was elected judge of his county and served with distinction in that capacity several terms.

Established Paper.

In 1890 Judge Buford retired from the active practice of his profession and established the Brunswick Gazette, one of the most popular of the weekly pub-lications of Southside Virginia. In 1893-54 he served a term in the Legis-ature.

Judge Buford possessed to an exceptional degree those qualities which are characteristic of the old type of the Virginian. His native ability, culti-vated by a liberal education, gave him a deep insight into men and into af-fairs, but no less admirable was the kindly courtesy universally exhibited, which had made for him a host of friends and admirers.

In early manhood Judge Buford mar-ried Miss Pattle Hicks, who, eight years ago, preceded him to the grave. He is survived by three sons and two daugh-The funeral will take place at his late
